

National History Day Project Organization

Due: Friday, February 5th, 2013

Directions (do the following on the Thinking Maps):

1. List your main ideas/arguments coming from your research that support your thesis.
2. Develop and explain these ideas to your audience – remember your job is to convince your audience that your thesis is true!
3. Pick quotes/citations from your sources to support your ideas/arguments
  - Remember, primary sources are the most powerful. Explain what the primary source is, include a quote/picture/sample of the source, then explain how it supports your thesis statement
4. You group must complete the attached Thinking Maps – expand as necessary. The thinking maps following are included as guides – tailor them to your project and include all the information needed. The better you do on this assignment, the easier your project creation will be! Please trust me and be as thorough and specific as possible.
5. This is the basic outline for your project!!

6. Due 2/5:

- 1 Group Tree Map (Listing/Organizing your arguments and evidence/sources)
- 1 Project Organization worksheet (Displaying the organization of your final project)
