

Primary Source Assessment

Who created this primary source?

When was it created?

Look at your primary source. Where does your eye go first?

What powerful words or ideas are expressed from this primary source?

What is happening during the time period when this primary source was created?

What was the creator's purpose in making the primary source? Or why was the primary source created or what was it used for?

What does the creator do to get his or her point across?

What was this primary source's audience?

What biases or stereotypes do you see?